THE DAILY AND WEEKLY STATE SENTINEL are the recog nized organs of the Democracy of Indiana. As it basin the past, the Sentines will continue to advocate those principles and measures which are best calculated to advance the happiness, the prosperity and the freedom of the people from all unjust and unnecessary restraints.

While cheerfully sustaining the Government as loyal citizens should, the SENTINEL will vigilantly watch all encroachments upon popular rights and the true principles of constitutional liberty. The freedom of speech and the freedom of the press are necessary to preserve and secure free institutions. When these are struck down, no matter what may be the apology therefor, from that day dates the decline of American liberty. In order to form tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity, the SESTINE, will fearlessly scrutinize and approve or condemn, as it believes the public good requires, all measures of the State and National Administrations. It will ever keep in view the distinction between supporting the Government and the venal acts of those who represent the Government. And we appeal for the support of all who desire to maintain a pure Constitutional Government, and continue for ourselves and our posterity the glorious heritage of free institutions, won by the LAW BOOKS.

Of the State of adiana, CONTAINING THE REVISED TATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. EDITED BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD.

> Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY, INDIANAPOLIS.

Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followin, ecommendation of the work:

STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD .- Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with amotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, a well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knowshow annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, to that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all legislation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what Used by --- the City Post Office.

was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to Used by-the City Prisons and Station see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mud'fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even Used by-the City Steamers, Ships, &c. the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Ga- Used by---the City Hospitals, Alms-Houses, vin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject or Used by——the Boarding Houses, &c., &c. of 1857. And they have followed the same mode of co- Used by more than 50,000 private families. ocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation rate notes contained in the volume in question. This vol- | Dealers, etc. ume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the approand references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have well merited his grateful approval. In every respect the volume under review is highly reditable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o Medina [O.] Gazette. its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which stroyed annually in Grant County by vermin we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes.

Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book, solely because he believes the editors and publishers deserve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the book, over his own proper name. DAVID McDONALD. Indianapolis, November 1, 1860. The first volume is now ready and being delivered t
